

BASIC LEARNING RIGHTS

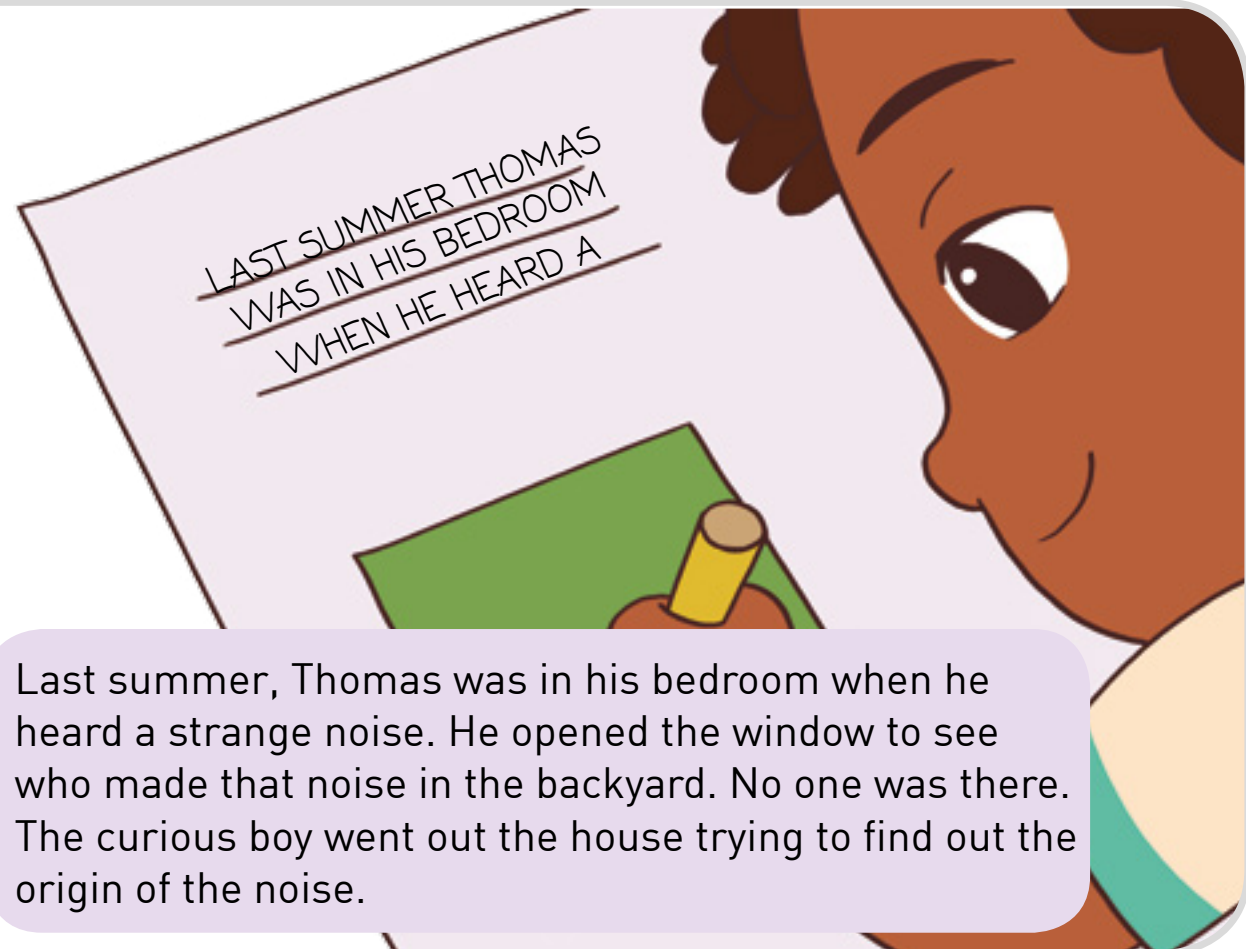

ENGLISH 5

1   Understands general and specific information in a short narrative text about topics, that are familiar or of personal interest; as in the following example:

This is my community. It is located near Nevado del Ruiz, an important mountain in the Andean region. We are farmers and we love nature; for that reason, we protect our environment...

2     Produces a short, simple, oral or written narrative text that responds to the what, who, when and where of an event or anecdote; as in the following example:

LAST SUMMER THOMAS WAS IN HIS BEDROOM WHEN HE HEARD A

Last summer, Thomas was in his bedroom when he heard a strange noise. He opened the window to see who made that noise in the backyard. No one was there. The curious boy went out the house trying to find out the origin of the noise.

3    Exchanges information about habits, likes and preferences related to familiar topics, following models provided by the teacher; as in the following example:

Hi Nancy, how are you?

Good. Hey, how do you plan to help our school environment?

Mmmm, I prefer to collect plastic bottles to recycle.

Fine, and you?

Well, I want to clean the garden and plant some trees.

Great! I love that.

4   Explains, in oral or written form, cause and effect related to topics of most immediate relevance, using simple sentences and following a model; as in the following example:

SUGAR

Sugar can be bad because it can cause health problems.
